Homeless Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program (HPRP)

October 29, 2009

Program Description

The Homeless Prevention and Rapid Re-Housing Program (HPRP) was authorized under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. The program allocated $2,359,998 to DeKalb County to provide financial assistance and services to either prevent individuals and families from becoming homeless or help those experiencing homelessness to be quickly re-housed and stabilized.

Program Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive financial assistance or services funded by HPRP, households who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless must at least meet the following minimum criteria:

1. Household Income must be at or below the income limits shown below.

Family Size

1 Person	2 Person	3 Person	4 Person	5 Person	6 Person	7 Person	8 Person
$25,100	$28,700	$32,250	$35,850	$38,700	$41,600	$44,450	$47,300

2. The household must be either homeless or at risk of losing its housing and meet both of the items listed below.
 - No other housing options have been identified; and
 - The household has no financial resources or support networks to obtain immediate housing or remain in existing housing.
3. Any household participating in the program must have an initial consultation with a case manager.

Eligible Activities

Under the DeKalb County HPRP program, households who can maintain stability with minimum assistance may be eligible to receive financial assistance and housing relocation and stabilization services. Types of assistance include the following:

- Rental and Utility Assistance (short term)
- Security deposits
- Utility deposits

- Services to assist homeless households that need temporary assistance to obtain housing
- Services to assist households at risk of homelessness to maintain housing
- Housing search and placement
- Legal Services , Credit Repair

*HPRP is not a mortgage assistance program. However, homeowners who become homeless are eligible for all HPRP activities, provided they meet the other eligibility criteria.
